

CHAPTER 10: THE SIGNAL

Across

- 5. crackling or hissing sound from a radio
- 7. tools or machines for a purpose
- 8. a wire or rod that sends or receives radio waves
- 9. to try out new ideas or methods
- 10. small leftover pieces of material
- 12. to repair or improve something in a casual way
- 14. continuing to try despite difficulties
- 16. a sound, action, or movement that sends a message
- 18. to send out signals or information by radio or TV
- 20. good at finding ways to solve problems

Down

- 1. to create or make something without preparation
- 2. the operation of aircraft
- 3. small remaining parts of something
- 4. having a strong decision to do something
- 6. a sharp, popping sound
- 11. the feeling of being upset from problems or delays
- 13. to send out signals or messages
- 15. feeling that good things will happen
- 17. help or advice from someone knowledgeable
- 19. a path for electricity to flow