

CHAPTER 8: THE WOMAN WHO FORGOT TIME

Across

- 8. bent, twisted, or not straight
- 9. broken into pieces or not complete
- 10. a small bag
- 12. thinking that something may be wrong or not right

Down

- 1. strange and difficult to understand
- 2. the act of remembering or identifying something
- 3. kept away from someone or something
- 4. covered with too many plants or vegetation

- 13. the beginning or first appearance of something
- 18. left somewhere without a way to leave
- 19. feeling scared or afraid
- 5. slowly being solved or made clear
- 6. looking carefully at something all over
- 7. a large snake, often used in stories to describe something winding or dangerous
- 11. believed to be under a spell of bad luck
- 14. spoke very quietly
- 15. being alone or separated from others
- 16. shook slightly because of cold or fear
- 17. not sure or unwilling to act right away
- 20. a small, simple house made of natural materials